

Putting the fun in fundraiser Scholars vs Outlaws Friday 26 September, 7.30pm

It's the 'South City Idol' of the year contest, with the Scholars (Aurora College) and the Outlaws (South Alive) competing with each other in comedy, singing, lip synch, muscle and brains. We're raising money for our community projects which we do to make South Invercargill look better and work better.

Aurora College need funding to provide sports uniforms and other equipment through their new Sports Club. Starting at 7.30pm, the evening will be mix of competitions between the teams, raffles, a shop with fixed priced items and auctions – and supper of course – followed by a dance party from about 10.30pm.

"The auction prizes which have been donated are outstanding", said Robyn Hickman, Chair of South Alive. "They represent a huge opportunity for people to get a bargain on something that they'll either remember for a lifetime or they really need," she said. Check out the auction items we have so far and keep updated on Facebook www.facebook.com/battleofthesouth

There are a limited number of tickets, so be in quick. Tickets $25 ea, including supper and $250 a table of ten. Available from Aurora College or South City Gifts & Lotto.

Team members: Sheree McNatty, Marie Crowe, Natalia Waaka, Jan Duncan, Liv McBride (our secret weapon for the singing contest), Gareth Scott, Sonny Rangitoheriri, Jade Ward, Carlos Legaz, Brent Tagamoa

Stop Press: Warren Parry, World Darts Champion, joins the Outlaws team ... bullseye! But wait, Jamie McIntosh joins the Aurora team... what a contest, it'll be Waza versus Whoppa!

Children and parents from Kew Pacific Island Early Childhood Education Centre, Kew Kindergarten and St Andrews Young Achievers Group coming to look at their gardens last week.

Come garden with us

They say a community that grows together stays together. It can also provide food, fun and new skills. Eight groups have adopted garden boxes in our community garden at the back of the mall - Georgetown Pippins, Invercargill Vegan Society, Kew Pacific Island Early Childhood Education Centre, Kew, Ranui and the Cottage Kindergartens, St Andrews Young Achievers and Southland Harm Reduction Programme. And there is room for more - if your group might like to garden with us, we'd love to hear from you. Call Gayle 2164348 or Jan 214 9348.

Thanks to our supporters

These businesses and organisations keep us Alive! So please support them wherever you can.

Appleby and Newfield Taverns - hospitality and food recognising our volunteers at Yellow drinks in August and September

G A Evans and Babz- NZ - donations of seeds for the community gardens

Outdoor Gym Classes - you can still sign up

Our 10 week fitness programme started last week but you can still come along. Have fun in the morning sun, get fit and meet new people. The class is followed by a cup of tea and a chat in the South Alive office. Sign up by calling Sport Southland on 0800 288483.
