

Our tale is coming – join us for the procession and opening

The sculpture, near the end of the fabrication phase, in a prone position for access. It will soon make its way to be painted which will take three weeks followed by installation including lighting and landscaping.

We've set a date for the official opening of the sculpture. It's Friday evening on August 21 and you're all invited. Come and join us, and the community procession beforehand.

Such a great occasion deserves some serious ceremony and celebration.

So we're organising a community procession which will start from the South Alive Community Park at the back of the South City Mall at 5.30pm and make its way along Ness Street and Dalrymple Street to the sculpture on the corner of Elles Road.

We're encouraging everyone to come and be a part of it – come as your class, your family, your club, organisation, church, with your friends, by yourself...just come!

Banners, flags, national flags, costumes and dress up are all encouraged – we'll be wearing a lot of yellow!

There will be free glow sticks for all!

We'd also love to hear your ideas for the procession and opening event, so get in touch with us at our office (see Contact Details) or via our website or Facebook.

Seniors Friendship Group starting

Valmai Grace has a great idea. She said it's been in the back of her mind for awhile now, especially since she stopped driving.

Valmai's idea is to establish a weekly coffee and chat group for seniors. She said that there aren't enough neighbourhood opportunities for older people that they can easily get to when no longer able to drive.

To start with, the gathering will simply be a get-together with afternoon tea. From there, Valmai says, they'll take ideas that come along and see what develops. So, all seniors, women and men, are warmly welcome to come along. The group will meet weekly on Tuesdays from 2 – 4pm, in The Hub which is opposite the South Alive office at the back of the South City mall. Contact Trudy at South Alive 218 6882 for more information or just come along.

Also note: A Craft and Coffee group is starting in the Hub and will meet weekly from Wednesday 29 July, 1pm–4pm. We'll have more on this in our next newsletter.

We thank our Volunteers

We recently celebrated Volunteer Week with a dinner for our volunteers.

Without them, and all the hundreds of hours they put in, we wouldn't have the long list of projects and changes that you now see around South Invercargill.

So dinner it was, for about 55 hardy souls who braved the terrible weather to dine together. And when you get people from groups such as Fruit and Nuts, Beautification, Arts, Zero Rubbish, Housing and the Dog Park swapping stories, it's bound to be a fun night.

We'd also like to say a very big thank you to the South Invercargill businesses that donated food and drink so that we could 'shout' this dinner - New World Elles Road, Glasines, Subway, Nigh 'n Day, Bells on Martin, South City Party Nibbles, United Video and LiquorLand.

Volunteers start the task of devouring the huge feast

Thanks to our supporters

These businesses, people and organisations keep us Alive! So please support them whenever you can.

- Appleby & Southland Taverns – really generous provision of food to South Alive volunteers at our Yellow Drinks
- New World Elles Road, Subway, Night n Day, Bells on Martin, South City Party Nibbles, Glasines, United Video, LiquorLand - for supplying our volunteers with food and drink at our annual Volunteer Week thank you dinner

South City Upgrade

Just a quick update on where this is at.

The footpath upgrades and associated gardens, outdoor seating, bike racks, barriers and light poles were completed last week, except for the area outside Westpac which is waiting for some piles to be constructed.

There has been a delay with the construction of the shelter hubs and seating and these are now expected to be installed in August/September.

And psst,... there's going to be a street party for the big opening once it's all finished. We'll have all the details in our next newsletter.

Wanted: Strawberry Plants for our community garden.

Contact Gayle on tel 216 4348 for pick up, or drop off at our office.
